SUBJECT : World Peace Council Presidential Committee Meeting, New Delhi, India, 16-18 October 1970

REFERENCE: Your teletype 007, dated 7 October 1970, Subject: Carlton Benjamin Goodlett.

1. In response to your request for information concerning Carlton GOODLETT's activities at the World Peace Council (WCP) meeting in New Delhi we have received the following information

A. GOODLETT, Sidney PECK (Bureau File
100-26799), and James FOREST (Bureau File 100-21326) were the only Americans attending the WCP meeting in New Delhi. PECK was described as young, dynamic, and more militant than GOODLETT, who was termed a complete "organization man." PECK, who attended as an invitee, had not yet been accepted into the inner circles of the WCP, although he was apparently being scrutinized by the leadership. PECK spoke of the necessity of integrating the "working class" and the blacks into the peace movement. Both he and GOODLETT appealed to the WCP for increased support of the American peace movement on the part of international peace organizations.
